INTRODUCTION

This book is one of a series of reference books for lovers of crossword puzzles, including the Bloomsbury Crossword Solver's Dictionary, the Bloomsbury Crossword Key, and the Bloomsbury Anagram Finder. In this updated edition we have included a number of new lists. These cover such diverse topics as animals in fiction, horses in history, famous ships, Mexican dishes, etc. As in previous editions we have listed words under categories – people, places, birds, animals, jewellery, canals, Greek gods, names of drinks, and so on, in the hope that the user can quickly find the required answer to a clue. We have chosen the contents for their usefulness and have tried to concentrate on words that actually appear in crosswords. We have also presented the information in the most helpful way. Usually, this means listing the words in length order – 3-letter, 4-letter, 5-letter words, etc., and then in alphabetical order within each section. In some cases we have used simple alphabetical or logical order and some information is presented in tabular form.

We have also included additional information in many of the lists; for example, the birth and death dates of people or the colours of gemstones. This is partly to help the reader to find the correct word, but we also hope that owners of the book will find it a useful reference source in its own right.

While most of the lists are collections of things, there are also lists of types of words – for example, palindromes, back words, homophones (words that sound like others), abbreviations and acronyms, common two-word phrases, anagram indicators, and split-word indicators. The book also contains a short section of familiar quotations and some well-known foreign words and phrases. To help the reader find his or her way about, there is a Contents page that lists all the tables and lists in the order in which they appear in the book. In addition, there is an index in the back of the book. This gives the tables and lists in alphabetical order, but has also been expanded to include many more cross references. For instance, a reader interested in 'jewels' will be directed to the list of gemstones, 'girl' might indicate a girl's first name, listed under first names, and so on. The index also contains hints on solving cryptic clues. There are many conventions used by setters of crosswords – 'love' often indicates the letter O, 'cardinal' might be a compass point, N, S, E, or W, 'twisted' could suggest an anagram, etc. A selection of these has been included in the index.

In using the book, the reader should also be aware of the inflection of words. The most common, for the purpose of crosswords, is the use of plurals, and it is usually apparent from the wording of the clue whether the answer is a singular or plural. When nouns have regular plurals, only the singular forms have been included. Another point is that verbs are invariably shown with -ize endings. The alternative -ise ending may have been used in the puzzle. The same principle applies to nouns with -ization.

Since the original publication of the book in 1989, a large number of useful comments and suggestions for additional lists have been received from readers. Many of these have been incorporated into the new edition. The editor would like to thank these correspondents and also thank all the people who have been involved in the production of the book. Their names are listed under Acknowledgments.

This case caused considerable public disquiet and was used in the abolition-of-hanging debate. |

MURDERERS AND ASSASSINS

|-------------------------------------|-----------|---|
| BRADY, Ian andHINDLEY, Myra     | 1966      | Sentenced to life imprisonment for the brutal murder of five children. They were known as the Moors murders as at least three children were killed and buried on the Lancashire moors; some of the bodies were never recovered.   |
| BURKE, William andHARE, William | 1827–28   | Burke was sentenced to death for the murder of Mary Patterson, James Wilson, and Margaret Docherty; Hare was granted immunity from prosecution by offering to turn King's Evidence. Burke and Hare, with the help of their partners, lured victims to their lodging house, murdered them and sold their bodies to an Edinburgh anatomist, Dr Knox. They are known to have murdered 16 people over a period of nine months, although the exact total is unknown. |
| BUSH, Edwin                         | 1961      | Hanged for the murder of Mrs Elsie Batten. He was identified from an indentikit portrait – the first use of the system in Britain.  |
| CHAPMAN, George                     | 1897–1902 | Hanged for the murders of Mary Spink, Bessie Taylor, and Maud Marsh. The three women (all of whom were apparently married to Chapman) were poisoned with antimony. The police who arrested him believed that Chapman may have been 'Jack the Ripper'.   |

| CORDER, William                     | 1827      | Sentenced to death for the murder of Maria Marten. Although her family had been led to believe that she was happily married and living on the Isle of Wight, her mother had a dream that she had been murdered and buried in the Red Barn on Corder's father's farm. Her body was found there.  |
| COTTON, Mary Ann                    | 1872      | Hanged for the murder of her stepson Charles Cotton. She was estimated to have killed 14 victims who were diagnosed as having died of gastric fever. She was arrested following the discovery of arsenic in the body of her stepson and the bodies of her husband, baby, and two stepchildren were exhumed. ## MURDERERS AND ASSASSINS

|---------------------|---------|--|
| HAIGH, John         | 1949    | Hanged for the murder of Olivia Durand-Deacon. Haigh thought he could not be tried for murder as he had destroyed the body in an acid bath. However, the discovery of gallstones, bone fragments, and false teeth meant that the remains could be identified.  |
| HALLIWELL, Kenneth  | 1967    | Murdered his lover, the British dramatist Joe Orton (1933–67).   |
| HANRATTY, James     | 1961    | Hanged for the murder of Michael Gregsten, after a trial lasting 21 days. Controversy surrounded the verdict. Much of the evidence was based on the identification of Hanratty by Valerie Storie (Gregsten's lover, who was present at the murder). Hanratty's alibi that he had been in Rhyl when the murder was committed was disbelieved. The uncertainty relating to the verdict added fuel to the campaign against hanging. In 2001 Hanratty's remains were exhumed to enable DNA comparison of the body with samples found at the crime scene. These matched and in 2002 the Court of Criminal Appeal ruled that Hanratty's conviction was not unsound and that there were no grounds for a posthumous pardon. |
| JACK THE RIPPER     | 1888    | Brutally murdered at least five prostitutes in the Whitechapel area. There has been great controversy about the identity of the murderer.  |
| KENT, Constance     | 1860    | Sentenced to death, commuted to life imprisonment, for the murder of her half-brother, Francis. In 1885 she was released and went to Australia, where she trained as a nurse under the name of Ruth Kaye. She successfully rebuilt her life and died in 1944, at the age of 100.   |
| LUCHENI, Luigi      | 1898    | Assassinated Empress Elizabeth of Austria. She collapsed and died two hours later, not realising she had been stabbed.   |
| MCMAHON, Thomas     | 1979    | Killed Louis Mountbatten, 1st Earl Mountbatten of Burma, by blowing up the boat in which he was fishing.   |
| MIJAILOVIĆ, Mijailo | 2003    | Stabbed Swedish Foreign minister Anna Lindh.   |
| NEILSON, Donald     | 1974–75 | Sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of four men. He was known as 'The Black Panther'.  |
| NILSEN, Denis       | 1979–83 | Convicted of the murder of six men after the discovery of human remains in a manhole at the side of the flats where he lived. He boasted of killing over 15 men in total.  |
| OSWALD, Lee Harvey  | 1963    | Believed to have shot US president John F. Kennedy.  |
| PEACE, Charles      | 1876    | Hanged for the murder of Arthur Dyson. Peace was a burglar who carried the 'tools of his trade' in a violin case. His activities were spread over a 25 year period, during which he became notorious.  |
| PRINCIP, Gavrilo    | 1914    | Yugoslav nationalist who killed Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria precipitating WW1.   |
| ROBINSON, John      | 1927    | Suffocated Minnie Alice Bonati. He dismembered her body and hid it in a trunk which he handed to the left-luggage office at Charing Cross station.   |

|  |          |   |
|--|----------|---|
| SCHRANK, John  | 1912     | Shot former US president Theodore Roosevelt.  |
| SHIPMAN, Harold  | ?1974–98 | A GP, Shipman was jailed in 2000 for the murder of 15 of his patients, although the total number of his victims is believed to be at least 215. He was found dead, hanging from the window bars of his prison cell, in 2004.  |
| SINGH, Satwant and SINGH, Beant  | 1984     | Assassinated Indira Gandhi.   |
| SIRHAN, Sirhan   | 1968     | Shot US Senator Robert F. Kennedy.  |
| SMITH, George ( alias Oliver Love, George Rose, Henry Williams, Oliver James, John Lloyd) | 1912     | Hanged for the murder of Bessie Mundy. The story became known as 'The Brides in the Bath' when it was revealed that Smith bigamously married his victims and, in three instances, killed them in their baths. In each inquest a verdict of accidental drowning was brought in, and Smith claimed the possessions or life insurance of his 'wife'. |
| STRATTON, Alfred and Albert  | 1905     | Convicted of the murders of Mr and Mrs Farrow. The case made legal history because the jury was convinced of the guilt of the two brothers after a fingerprint found at the scene of the crime was found to match that of Alfred Stratton.  |
| SUTCLIFFE, Peter   | 1975–80  | Sentenced to life imprisonment following the murder of 13 women. Known as the 'Yorkshire Ripper', Sutcliffe claimed he had a mission from God to kill prostitutes (although several of his victims were not prostitutes).   |
| TURPIN, Dick   | 1735     | Hanged at York for the murder of Thomas Morris. Notorious for highway robberies, a reward of £200 was placed on his head.   |
| WEST, Frederick and Rosemary   | ?1970–94 | Frederick West committed suicide before his trial for the murder of 12 young women. Rosemary West was sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of 10 young women.  |

Don't spoil the ship for a ha'porth of tar.
Don't teach your grandmother to suck eggs.

Don't throw the baby out with the bathwater.
Don't wash your dirty linen in public.
Early to bed and early to rise, makes a man healthy, wealthy, and wise.
Easier said than done.
East, west, home's best.
Easy come, easy go.
Empty vessels make the greatest sound.
Even a worm will turn.
Every cloud has a silver lining.
Every dog has his day.
Every dog is allowed one bite.
Every man for himself, and the devil take the hindmost.
Everything comes to him who waits.
Experience is the best teacher.
Faith will move mountains.
Familiarity breeds contempt.
Fight fire with fire.
Fine feathers make fine birds.
Fine words butter no parsnips.
Fish and guests smell in three days.
Forewarned is forearmed.
Forgive and forget.
For want of a nail the shoe was lost; for want of a shoe the horse was lost; for want of a horse the rider was lost.
From clogs to clogs in only three generations.
Give a dog a bad name and hang him.
Give him an inch and he'll take a yard.
Great minds think alike.
Great oaks from little acorns grow.
Handsome is as handsome does.
He that fights and runs away, may live to fight another day.
He travels fastest who travels alone.

He who hesitates is lost.
 He who lives by the sword dies
 by the sword.
 He who pays the piper calls the tune.
 He who sups with the devil
 should have a long spoon.
 History repeats itself.
 Honesty is the best policy.
 If a job's worth doing, it's worth doing well.
 If at first you don't succeed, try,
 try, try again.
 If the mountain will not come to Mahomet, Mahomet must go to the mountain.
 If you don't like the heat, get out of the kitchen.
 Imitation is the sincerest form
 of flattery.
 In for a penny, in for a pound.
 In the country of the blind, the one-eyed man is king.
 It is no use crying over spilt
 milk.
 It never rains but it pours.
 It's an ill wind that blows
 nobody any good.
 It's too late to shut the stable door after the horse has bolted.
 It will all come right in the wash.
 It will be all the same in a hundred years.
 Jack of all trades, master of none.
 Keep something for a rainy day.
 Kill not the goose that lays the golden egg.
 Least said soonest mended.
 Let bygones be bygones.
 Let sleeping dogs lie.
 Let the cobbler stick to his last.
 Life begins at forty.
 Life is just a bowl of cherries.
 Life is not all beer and skittles.
 Look before you leap.
 Love is blind.
 Love laughs at locksmiths.
 Lucky at cards, unlucky in love.
 Many a true word is spoken in jest.
 Many hands make light work.
 March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb.
 March winds and April showers
 bring forth May flowers.
 Marry in haste, and repent at leisure.

More haste, less speed.
 Necessity is the mother of invention.
 Needs must when the devil
 drives.
 Ne'er cast a clout till May be
 out.
 Never look a gift horse in the mouth.
 No time like the present.
 Old habits die hard.
 Old sins cast long shadows.
 One for sorrow, two for joy;
 three for a girl, four for a boy;
 five for silver, six for gold;
 seven for a secret, not to be told; eight for heaven, nine for hell; and ten for the devil's own sel.
 One good turn deserves
 another.
 One man's meat is another man's poison.
 One swallow does not make a summer.
 Out of sight, out of mind.
 Patience is a virtue.
 Penny wise, pound foolish.
 Prevention is better than cure.
 Red sky at night, shepherd's delight; red sky in the morning, shepherd's warning.
 Revenge is a dish that tastes better cold.
 Revenge is sweet.
 See a pin and pick it up, all the day you'll have good luck;
 see a pin and let it lie, you'll want a pin before you die.
 Seeing is believing.
 See Naples and die.
 Silence is golden.
 Spare the rod and spoil the child.
 Sticks and stones may break my bones, but words will never hurt me.
 Still waters run deep.
 St. Swithin's Day, if thou dost rain, for forty days it will remain; St. Swithin's Day, if thou be fair, for forty days
 'twill rain no more.
 Take a hair of the dog that bit
 you.
 The darkest hour is just before the dawn.
 The devil finds work for idle
 hands to do.
 The devil looks after his own.

The early bird catches the worm.
 The end justifies the means.
 The exception proves the rule.
 The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world.
 Time is a great healer.
 There is honour among thieves.
 There is more than one way to skin a cat.
 There is no accounting for tastes.
 There is safety in numbers.
 There's many a good tune played on an old fiddle.
 There's many a slip' twixt the cup and the lip.
 There's no place like home.
 There's no smoke without fire.
 The road to hell is paved with good intentions.
 Time and tide wait for no man.
 Time is a great healer.
 Too many cooks spoil the broth.
 Truth is stranger than fiction.
 Two heads are better than one.
 Two wrongs do not make a right.
 United we stand, divided we fall.
 Waste not, want not.
 We must learn to walk before
 we can run.
 What you lose on the swings
 you gain on the roundabouts.
 When poverty comes in at the door, love flies out of the window.
 When the cat's away, the mice
 will play.
 When the wine is in, the wit is
 out.
 Where there's a will there's a way.
 Why keep a dog and bark yourself?
 You can lead a horse to the water, but you can't make him drink.
 You cannot run with the hare and hunt with the hounds.
 You can't make an omelette
 without breaking eggs.
 You can't teach an old dog
 new tricks.
 You can't tell a book by its cover.

Whither shall I wander?
Upstairs and downstairs
And in my lady's chamber.

The little dog laughed

How many miles to Babylon?
Three score miles and ten.
Can I get there by candle-light?
Yes, and back again.
If your heels are nimble and
light,
You may get there by candlelight.

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall,
Humpty Dumpty had a great

All the king's horses and
All the king's men,

And when they were down they

Pussy cat, pussy cat, where

I've been to London to look at the queen.
Pussy cat, pussy cat, what did you there?
I frightened a little mouse

Ride a cock-horse to Banbury
Cross,
To see a fine lady upon a white
horse;
Rings on her fingers and bells

Ring-a-ring o'roses,
A pocket full of posies,
A-tishoo! A-tishoo!
We all fall down.

Rub-a-dub-dub,
Three men in a tub,
And who do you think they be?
The butcher, the baker,
The candlestick-maker,
And they all sailed out to sea.

Going to the fair;
Says Simple Simon to the

Says Simple Simon to the

Indeed I have not any.

Sing a song of sixpence,
A pocket full of rye;
Four and twenty blackbirds,
Baked in a pie.
When the pie was opened,
The birds began to sing;
Was not that a dainty dish,
To set before the king?
The king was in his counting-
house,
Counting out his money;
The queen was in the parlour,
Eating bread and honey.
The maid was in the garden,
Hanging out the clothes,
When down came a blackbird,
And pecked off her nose.

All round about the town.

And they all lived together in a little crooked house.

Seven swans a-swimming,
Six geese a-laying,
Five gold rings,
Four colly (or calling) birds,
Three French hens,
Two turtle doves, and
A partridge in a pear tree.

be:

Twelve drummers drumming
Eleven pipers piping
Ten lords a-leaping
Nine ladies dancing

This little piggy went to market,
This little piggy stayed at

This little piggy had roast beef,
This little piggy had none,
And this little piggy cried, Wee-wee-wee-wee-wee,
I can't find my way home.

Three blind mice, see how they

They all run after the farmer's

Who cut off their tails with a

Are the children all in bed? It's past eight o'clock.

What are little boys made of?
Frogs and snails

And puppy-dogs' tails,
That's what little boys are

Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days.

Ecclesiastes, 11: 1

I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

Is either a little Liberal
Or else a little Conservative!
Iolanthe, II

As some day it may happen that a victim must be found

I've got a little list – I've got a little list

Of society offenders who might well be underground,
And who never would be missed – who never would be missed!

The Mikado, I

Three little maids from school are we,
Pert as a school-girl well can be,
Filled to the brim with girlish glee.

My object all sublime
I shall achieve in time –
To let the punishment fit the crime –
The punishment fit the crime.

When lovely woman stoops to folly,
And finds too late that men betray,
What charm can soothe her melancholy,
What art can wash her guilt away?
The Vicar of Wakefield, Ch. 9

Conscience is a coward, and those faults it has not strength enough to prevent it seldom has justice enough to accuse.

GRAY, Thomas (1716–71) British poet

The boast of heraldry, the pomp of pow'r,
And all that beauty, all that wealth e'er gave,
Awaits alike th' inevitable hour,
The paths of glory lead but to the grave.
Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard

Some village-Hampden, that with dauntless breast
The little Tyrant of his fields withstood;
Some mute inglorious Milton here may rest,
Some Cromwell guiltless of his country's blood.
Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard

Far from the madding crowd's ignoble strife,
Their sober wishes never learn'd to stray;
Along the cool sequester'd vale of life
They kept the noiseless tenor of their way.
Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard

Alas, regardless of their doom,
The little victims play!
Ode on a Distant Prospect of Eton College

Yet ah! why should they know their fate?
Since sorrow never comes too late,
And happiness too swiftly flies.

Thought would destroy their paradise.

No more; where ignorance is bliss,
'Tis folly to be wise.

Ode on a Distant Prospect of Eton College

Not all that tempts your wand'ring eyes
And heedless hearts, is lawful prize;
Nor all, that glisters, gold.

Wearing white for Eastertide.
A Shropshire Lad, '1887'

On Wenlock Edge the wood's in trouble;
His forest fleece the Wrekin heaves;
The wind, it plies the saplings double,
And thick on Severn snow the leaves.
A Shropshire Lad, 'The Welsh Marches'

East and west on fields forgotten
Bleach the bones of comrades slain,
Lovely lads and dead and rotten;
None that go return again.

Malt does more than Milton can
To justify God's ways to man.

KEATS, John (1795–1821) British poet

A thing of beauty is a joy for ever:
Its loveliness increases; it will never Pass into nothingness; but still will keep
A bower quiet for us, and a sleep
Full of sweet dreams, and health, and quiet breathing.

Endymion, I

St Agnes' Eve – Ah, bitter chill it was!
The owl, for all his feathers, was a-cold;
The hare limp'd trembling through the frozen

Ode to a Nightingale

Thou wast not born for death, immortal Bird!
No hungry generations tread thee down;
The voice I hear this passing night was heard
In ancient days by emperor and clown:

Ode to a Nightingale

Darkling I listen; and, for many a time
I have been half in love with easeful Death,
Call'd him soft names in many a musèd rhyme,
To take into the air my quiet breath;
Now more than ever seems it rich to die,
To cease upon the midnight with no pain,
While thou art pouring forth thy soul abroad
In such an ecstasy!

The Female of the Species

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings – nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;

Far and few, far and few,

The Owl and the Pussy-Cat went to sea
In a beautiful pea-green boat,
They took some honey, and plenty of money,
Wrapped up in a five-pound note.

SHAKESPEARE, William (1564–1616) English dramatist and poet

Our remedies oft in ourselves do lie,
Which we ascribe to heaven.
All's Well that Ends Well, I: 1

Where's my serpent of old Nile?
Antony and Cleopatra, I: 5

My salad days,
When I was green in judgment, cold in blood,
To say as I said then!

Antony and Cleopatra, I: 5

The barge she sat in, like a burnish'd throne,
Burn'd on the water. The poop was beaten gold;
Purple the sails, and so perfumed that
The winds were love-sick with them; the oars
were silver,

Which to the tune of flutes kept stroke and made
The water which they beat to follow faster,
As amorous of their strokes. For her own person,
It beggar'd all description.

Antony and Cleopatra, II: 2

Age cannot wither her, nor custom stale
Her infinite variety. Other women cloy
The appetites they feed, but she makes hungry
Where most she satisfies.

Antony and Cleopatra, II: 2

She shall be buried by her Antony!
No grave upon the earth shall clip in it
A pair so famous.

Antony and Cleopatra, V: 2

Well said; that was laid on with a trowel.
As You Like It, I: 2

And this our life, exempt from public haunt,
Finds tongues in trees, books in the running
brooks,

Sermons in stones and good in everything.

As You Like It, II: 1

All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players;
They have their exits and their entrances;
And one man in his time plays many parts,
His acts being seven ages.

As You Like It, II: 7

Last scene of all,
That ends this strange eventful history,
Is second childishness and mere oblivion;
Sans teeth, sans eyes, sans taste, sans every thing.

As You Like It, II: 7

Men have died from time to time, and worms have eaten them, but not for love.

As You Like It, IV: 1

Fear no more the heat o' th' sun

Hamlet, I: 2

O! that this too too solid flesh would melt,
Thaw, and resolve itself into a dew.
Or that the Everlasting had not fix'd
His canon 'gainst self-slaughter! O God! O God!
How weary, stale, flat, and unprofitable,
Seem to me all the uses of this world!
Hamlet, I: 2

Frailty, thy name is woman!

Hamlet, I: 2

Foul deeds will rise,
Though all the earth o'erwhelm them, to men's

Hamlet, I: 2

Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy,
But not express'd in fancy; rich, not gaudy;
For the apparel oft proclaims the man.

Hamlet, I: 3

Neither a borrower nor a lender be;
For loan oft loses both itself and friend,
And borrowing dulls the edge of husbandry.
This above all: to thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man.

Hamlet, I: 3

Something is rotten in the state of Denmark.

Hamlet, I: 4

Murder most foul, as in the best it is;
But this most foul, strange, and unnatural.

Though this be madness, yet there is method
in't.

Hamlet, II: 2

There is nothing either good or bad, but thinking makes it so.

Hamlet, II: 2

What a piece of work is a man! How noble in reason! how infinite in faculties! in form and moving, how express and admirable! in action, how like an angel! in apprehension, how like a god!
the beauty of the world! the paragon of animals!

Hamlet, II: 2

I am but mad north-north-west; when the wind is southerly, I know a hawk from a handsaw.

Hamlet, II: 2

The play, I remember, pleas'd not the million;
'twas caviare to the general.

Hamlet, II: 2

To be, or not to be – that is the question;
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune,
Or to take arms against a sea of troubles,

And by opposing end them? To die, to sleep –
No more; and by a sleep to say we end
The heart-ache and the thousand natural shocks
That flesh is heir to, 'tis a consummation
Devoutly to be wish'd. To die, to sleep;
To sleep, perchance to dream. Ay, there's the rub;

For in that sleep of death what dreams may come,
When we have shuffled off this mortal coil,
Must give us pause.

Hamlet, III: 1

The dread of something after death –
The undiscover'd country, from whose bourn
No traveller returns.

Hamlet, III: 1

Thus conscience does make cowards of us all;

Hamlet, III: 1

Madness in great ones must not unwatch'd go.

Hamlet, III: 1

How all occasions do inform against me,
And spur my dull revenge! What is a man,
If his chief good and market of his time
Be but to sleep and feed? a beast, no more.

Hamlet, IV: 4

When sorrows come, they come not single spies,
But in battalions!

Hamlet, IV: 5

There's rosemary, that's for remembrance; pray,

Sleep that knits up the ravell'd sleeve of care,

The death of each day's life, sore labour's bath,

Balm of hurt minds, great nature's second course,

Chief nourisher in life's feast.

Macbeth, II: 2

Eye of newt, and toe of frog,

Wool of bat, and tongue of dog,

Adder's fork, and blind-worm's sting,

Lizard's leg, and howlet's wing,

For a charm of powerful trouble,

Like a hell-broth boil and bubble.

Macbeth, IV: 1

Be bloody bold, and resolute, laugh to scorn

The power of man, for none of woman born

Shall harm Macbeth.

Macbeth, IV: 1

Here's the smell of the blood still. All the perfumes of Arabia will not sweeten this little hand.

Macbeth, V: 1

Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow,

Creeps in this petty pace from day to day

To the last syllable of recorded time,

And all our yesterdays have lighted fools

The way to dusty death. Out, out, brief candle!

Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player,

That struts and frets his hour upon the stage,

And then is heard no more; it is a tale

Told by an idiot, full of sound and fury,

Signifying nothing.

Macbeth, V: 5

The devil can cite Scripture for his purpose.

The Merchant of Venice, I: 3

You call me misbeliever, cut-throat dog,

And spit upon my Jewish gaberdine,

And all for use of that which is mine own.

The Merchant of Venice, I: 3

It is a wise father that knows his own child.

The Merchant of Venice, II: 2

Hath not a Jew eyes? Hath not a Jew hands, organs, dimensions, senses, affections, passions, fed with the same food, hurt with the same weapons, subject to the same diseases, healed

by the same means, warmed and cooled by the same winter and summer, as a Christian is? If you prick us, do we not bleed? If you tickle us, do we not laugh? If you poison us, do we not die?

And if you wrong us, shall we not revenge?

The Merchant of Venice, III: 1

The quality of mercy is not strain'd;

It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven

Upon the place beneath. It is twice blest;

It blesseth him that gives and him that takes.

The Merchant of Venice, IV: 1

How far that little candle throws his beams!

So shines a good deed in a naughty world.

The Merchant of Venice, V: 1

Why, then the world's mine oyster,

Which I with sword will open.

The Merry Wives of Windsor, II: 2

For aught that I could ever read,

Could ever hear by tale or history,

The course of true love never did run smooth.

A Midsummer Night's Dream, I: 1

Ill met by moonlight, proud Titania.

A Midsummer Night's Dream, II: 1

The lunatic, the lover, and the poet,

Are of imagination all compact.

A Midsummer Night's Dream, V: 1

Doth not the appetite alter? A man loves the meat in his youth that he cannot endure in his age.

Much Ado About Nothing, II: 3

Comparisons are odorous.

Much Ado About Nothing, III: 5

Reputation, reputation, reputation! O, I have lost my reputation! I have lost the immortal part of myself, and what remains is bestial.

Othello, II: 3

But he that filches from me my good name
Robs me of that which not enriches him
And makes me poor indeed.

Othello, III: 3

O, beware, my lord, of jealousy;
It is the green-ey'd monster which doth mock
The meat it feeds on.

Othello, III: 3

Then must you speak
Of one that lov'd not wisely, but too well;
Of one not easily jealous, but, being wrought,
Perplexed in the extreme; of one whose hand,
Like the base Indian, threw a pearl away
Richer than all his tribe.

Othello, V: 2

Teach thy necessity to reason thus:
There is no virtue like necessity.

Richard II, I: 3

This royal throne of kings, this sceptred isle,
This earth of majesty, this seat of Mars,
This other Eden, demi-paradise,
This fortress built by Nature for herself
Against infection and the hand of war,
This happy breed of men, this little world,
This precious stone set in the silver sea,
Which serves it in the office of a wall,
Or as a moat defensive to a house,
Against the envy of less happier lands;
This blessed plot, this earth, this realm, this England,
This nurse, this teeming womb of royal kings,
Fear'd by their breed, and famous by their birth.

Richard II, II: 1

Now is the winter of our discontent
Made glorious summer by this sun of York.

Richard III, I: 1

A horse! a horse! my kingdom for a horse.

Richard III, V: 4

From forth the fatal loins of these two foes
A pair of star-cross'd lovers take their life.

Romeo and Juliet, Prologue

O! she doth teach the torches to burn bright
It seems she hangs upon the cheek of night
Like a rich jewel in an Ethiop's ear;
Beauty too rich for use, for earth too dear.

Romeo and Juliet, I: 5

My only love sprung from my only hate!
Too early seen unknown, and known too late!

Romeo and Juliet, I: 5

What's in a name? That which we call a rose
By any other name would smell as sweet.

Romeo and Juliet, II: 2

Good night, good night! Parting is such sweet sorrow

That I shall say good night till it be morrow.

Romeo and Juliet, II: 2

A plague o' both your houses!
They have made worms' meat of me.

Romeo and Juliet, III: 1

How beauteous mankind is! O brave new world
That has such people in't!

The Tempest, V: 1

If music be the food of love, play on,
Give me excess of it, that, surfeiting,
The appetite may sicken and so die.

Twelfth Night, I: 1

Then come kiss me, sweet and twenty;
Youth's a stuff will not endure.

Twelfth Night, II: 3

Dost thou think, because thou art virtuous, there shall be no more cakes and ale?

Twelfth Night, II: 3

Some are born great, some achieve greatness,
and some have greatness thrust upon 'em.

Twelfth Night, II: 5

Crabbed age and youth cannot live together:

Youth is full of pleasure, age is full of care;
Youth like summer morn, age like winter
weather;

Youth like summer brave, age like winter bare.

The Passionate Pilgrim, XII

Shall I compare thee to a summer's day?
Thou art more lovely and more temperate.
Rough winds do shake the darling buds of May,
And summer's lease hath all too short a date.

Sonnet 18

Let me not to the marriage of true minds
Admit impediments. Love is not love
Which alters when it alteration finds,
Or bends with the remover to remove.
O, no! it is an ever-fixed mark,
That looks on tempests and is never shaken.

Sonnet 116

COMMON QUOTATIONS

O Wild West Wind, thou breath of Autumn's being,
Thou, from whose unseen presence the leaves

Pestilence-stricken multitudes.

Treasure Island, Ch. 1

Under the wide and starry sky

Dig the grave and let me lie.

Glad did I live and gladly die,

– And I laid me down with a will.

This is the verse you grave for me:

'Here he lies where he longed to be;

Home is the sailor, home from sea,

And the hunter home from the hill.'

Underwoods, Bk. I, 'Requiem'

TENNISON, Alfred, Baron (1809–92) British

Their's not to make reply,

Their's not to reason why,

Their's but to do and die:

Into the valley of Death

Rode the six hundred.

The Charge of the Light Brigade

And God fulfils himself in many ways.'

I hold it true, whate'er befall;

I feel it, when I sorrow most;

'Tis better to have loved and lost

Than never to have loved at all.

In Memoriam A.H.H., XXVII

I dreamed there would be Spring no more,
That Nature's ancient power was lost.

In Memoriam A.H.H., LXIX

And thro' the field the road runs by

To many-tower'd Camelot.

'The curse is come upon me,' cried

The Lady of Shalott.

The Lady of Shalott, Pt. III

Dear as remembered kisses after death,

And sweet as those by hopeless fancy feign'd

On lips that are for others: deep as love,

Deep as first love, and wild with all regret;

O Death in Life, the days that are no more.

The Princess, IV

THOMAS, Dylan (1914–53) Welsh poet

Though they go mad they shall be sane,

Though they sink through the sea they shall rise again.

Though lovers be lost love shall not;

And death shall have no dominion.

And death shall have no dominion

Do not go gentle into that good night,

Old age should burn and rave at close of day;

Rage, rage, against the dying of the light.

Do not go gentle into that good night

Now as I was young and easy under the apple boughs

About the lilting house and happy as the grass was green.

vales.

The Ballad of Reading Gaol, l:3
 Yet each man kills the thing he loves,
 By each let this be heard,
 Some do it with a bitter look,

 The coward does it with a kiss,
 The brave man with a sword!

The Importance of Being Earnest, I

To lose one parent, Mr Worthing, may be carelessness.

The Importance of Being Earnest, I

I never travel without my diary. One should always have something sensational to read in the train.

 In lands beyond the sea;
 Nor, England! did I know till then
 What love I bore to thee.

I Travelled among Unknown Men

I wandered lonely as a cloud
 That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
 When all at once I saw a crowd,
 A host, of golden daffodils.

For oft, when on my couch I lie
 In vacant or in pensive mood,

 Of thoughtless youth; but hearing often-times
 The still, sad music of humanity.

*Lines composed a few miles above Tintern
 Abbey*

My heart leaps up when I behold

A rainbow in the sky:

So was it when my life began;

So is it now I am a man;

So be it when I shall grow old,

Or let me die!

The Child is Father of the Man;

And I could wish my days to be

Bound each to each by natural piety.

That's all we shall know for truth

Before we grow old and die.

MOTTOES

For the good are always the merry,
 Save by an evil chance,
 And the merry love the fiddle,
 And the merry love to dance
The Fiddler of Dooney
 I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree,
 And a small cabin build there, of clay and wattles made;
 Nine bean rows will I have there, a hive for the honey bee,
 And live alone in the bee-loud glade.
The Lake Isle of Innisfree
 Under bare Ben Bulbin's head
 In Drumcliff churchyard Yeats is laid...
 On limestone quarried near the spot
 By his command these words are cut:
Cast a cold eye

On life, on death.
Horseman, pass by!
Under Ben Bulbin, VI
 When you are old and gray and full of sleep,
 And nodding by the fire, take down this book,
 And slowly read, and dream of the soft look
 Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep.
When you are Old
 Love fled
 And paced upon the mountains overhead
 And hid his face amid a crowd of stars.
When you are Old
 But I, being poor, have only my dreams;
 I have spread my dreams under your feet;
 Tread softly because you tread on my dreams.
He Wishes for the Cloths of Heaven

INTRODUCTION

This book consists of a set of lists of words specifically designed to help crossword-puzzle solvers. We have included over 100,000 English words organized into words with two letters, words with three letters, four letters, etc., up to fifteen letters. Within each section, the words are arranged alphabetically.

The words chosen include proper nouns, names of people and places, as well as common two- and three-word phrases. We have also given, in many cases, plurals of nouns, comparatives and superlatives of adjectives, and inflections of verbs. In general, ‘-ize’ endings have been used for verbs. It should be noted that ‘-ise’ endings are also possible for these.

While it would be impossible to produce anything like a comprehensive list, we have decided to include some less common variant spellings, for example QUR’AN/KORAN or TSETSE/TZETZE. Likewise, we have also put in some American spellings, for example PEDALING as well as PEDALLING. Note, too, that some words and phrases, although they use identical letters, change their form according to the part of speech and would therefore appear differently in a crossword clue. For example, the verb RUN DOWN would be shown as two words (3,4) whereas the adjective RUN-DOWN would be shown as a single, hyphenated word (3-4). We have included many of these variants.

There are three additional lists in the Appendix: a list of words where Q is not followed by U; a list of words that start with the letter X; and, new for this edition, a list of abbreviations used in texting and messaging.

We hope that the book will prove useful to all who enjoy doing crossword puzzles – and, in particular, to those who enjoy completing them.
